

Implementation of Quality Reporting and Quality Incentive Payment System

Katie Burns
Minnesota Department of Health

December 2008

Quality Reporting and Quality Incentive Payment System

- Important requirements and dates established in Minnesota's health reform law
 - July 1, 2009 – MDH specifies quality measures and quality incentive payment system
 - Jan. 1, 2010 – Providers submit standard quality measures
 - July 1, 2010 – Standard quality measures reported publicly

Key Implementation Tasks

- Task One: Quality measures identification and documentation to be used for public reporting
- Task Two: Development of an incentive payment system
- Task Three: Collection and public reporting of standardized quality measures

Quality Reporting and Quality Incentive Payment System

- Minnesota Statutes, section 62U.02
- MDH contracting with local organizations to implement this work
 - Minnesota Community Measurement – contract lead with:
 - Minnesota Hospital Association
 - Minnesota Medical Association
 - Stratis Health
 - University of Minnesota
 - $ 3 million contract over 4 years

Quality Incentive Payment System

- Project Status

- On schedule to meet statutory timelines
- Met all key milestones to date (e.g., RFP, contract, etc.)

General Timeline

Dec. 5, 2008	Inventory of existing quality measures completed
Dec. 2008 thru Jan. 2009	Contractor holds public meetings with stakeholders to develop recommendations on a set of quality measures for public reporting
Feb. 1, 2009	Inventory of existing quality incentive payment and pay-for-performance systems complete

Quality Incentive Payment System

General Timeline

Feb. 2009 thru Mar. 2009	Contractor holds public meetings with stakeholders to develop recommendations on quality measures and specific methodology for quality-based incentive payment system
Apr. 2009 thru June 2009	MDH adopts administrative rules to implement the quality measures and incentive-based payment system
July 2009	Contractor begins education and training of providers about quality reporting requirements
Jan. 1, 2010	Contractor begins collecting data
July 1, 2010	MDH publishes first public report on quality measures
July 1, 2010	SEGIP begins using the quality incentive payment system